

The Fastest Lead Time Just Got Faster

How it works.

When you add your order to the shopping cart, you'll see the new feature with your production choices under the title, "When do you need it?" If you're ordering a full unit (more than 10 parts) your choices will include 2 new expedited production options that will put you in the fast lane for a minimal fee.

Do not deliver my product earlier than this date.

- Expedited Production is only available on full unit orders (more than 10 parts).
- The Standard production time is selected by default. If that fits your needs, you do not need to select another option.
- Choosing the new options only affect your place in the production schedule, not the FedEx level of service.

You make the choice. We make it easy.
